MINISTRY OF COMMERCE & INDUSTRY

PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 15th October 1962

SUBJECT:—Cotton Textiles Export Incentive Scheme—Licensing of Coal-tar dyes and certain types of textile chemicals against exports of cotton fabrics etc.

No. 139-ITC(PN)/62.—Attention is invited to Government of India, Ministry of Commerce & Industry Public Notice No. 53-ITC(PN)/62, dated the 17th May, 1962, as amended from time to time, on the above subject.

2. On a review of the position, it has been decided that clause (i) of Note V below para 1 of the said Public Notice No. 53-ITC(PN)/62 dated the 17th May, 1962 may be substituted by the following:—

“(i) the Mills/Registered Processors transferring the import entitlement utilisable for import of dyes intermediates, shall receive from the transferee/s (i.e. the indigenous manufacturers of dyes), a premium not exceeding 60% (sixty percent) of the value of the entitlement transferred;”

3. The above amendment will be applicable in respect of the import entitlement on exports of cotton textiles etc. made after the 5th September, 1962, under the Cotton Textiles Export Incentive Scheme.

K. T. SATARAWALA,
Chief Controller of Imports and Exports

(Department of International Trade)

RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 15th October 1962

No. 6(8)Tex(C)/62-Vol.II.—The Government of India have decided to set up an Export Promotion Advisory Committee for Handloom Goods at Madras. The functions of this Committee will be:—

- (a) to act as a channel of communication between the Government of India, the Handloom Board and the exporting interests so as to facilitate the discussion of problems facing the export of the entire range and types of handloom fabrics;
- (b) to make recommendations regarding the best means and methods of expanding exports of handloom fabrics to both traditional and non-traditional areas;

- (c) to promote interest among manufacturers of handloom fabrics in the expansion of sales overseas;
- (d) to maintain close liaison in the matter of export promotion with the Export Promotion Council for Textiles and Art Silks and other bodies in the country connected with the promotion of export of handloom textiles and handloom goods;
- (e) to advise Government on the nature and type of export promotion incentives and the working of the export promotion scheme/schemes and implementation thereof with a view to step up exports.
- (f) to effect co-ordination in the matter of export of the entire range and types of handloom goods between the various organisations which are functioning at present such as All India Handloom Board, the All India Handloom Fabrics Marketing Co-operative Society, the Handicrafts and Handlooms Development Corporation, other handloom co-operative societies engaged in exports and all other handloom exporters.

While it would be the function of the Committee to make recommendations on the above subject, it will be appreciated that the recommendations must be consistent with the general policies regarding foreign trade laid down from time to time by the Government of India. The composition of the Committee will be as follows:—
